

16th December 2013

The Punjab Transparency and Right to Information Act 2013

It allows any citizen of Punjab to get information or copy of record from any government body

Provincial Departments
 Attached Departments
 Autonomous & Semiautonomous Bodies
 Companies
 Special Government Institutions
 NGOs Getting Government Funds

Public Information Officers

The PIO is bound to provide required information within 14 days.

Benefits

- ▶ Accountability
- ▶ Strengthen Democracy
- ▶ Reinforce the Governance
- ▶ Reduction in Corruption & Irregularities
- ▶ Improvement in Development Schemes
- ▶ Transparency
- ▶ Improved Service Delivery
- ▶ Participation Decision Making

How to get Information?

- ▶ Submit an application to PIO
- ▶ PIO will acknowledge receipt of the application

What if the requested information is not provided?

If PIO refuses to accept application, delays or refuses to provide the information within sixty days of the date of decision

- ▶ “Complaint” against PIO’s decision to the Provincial Information Commission
- ▶ Submit an application of review to the head of respective government body

Proactive Disclosure of information

- 1- Particular functions and duties
- 2- Acts, ordinances, rules & circulars etc.
- 3- Decision-making processes
- 4- A directory of employees
- 5- Budget and actual expenditures
- 6- Detail of subsidies
- 7- Permits or authorizations
- 8- Facilities for obtaining information
- 9- Particulars of the designated PIO
- 10- Information notified in the official Gazette

Restricted information

- National security and public order
- Relation of Pakistan with other countries
- A legitimate privacy interest of a person
- Legally privileged information
- The legitimate commercial interests
- The life or health of a person
- Administration of justice
- Government economy
- Governmental policy making

